If either party in the dispute appeals his/her decision, the matter shall be taken up by the CVF officers for settlement. If either party in the dispute appeals their decision, the entire CVF membership, other than the parties in the dispute, shall decide the issues with a majority vote. If the dispute cannot be remedied through the CVF membership or its affiliates (i.e., Combine, Concourse, Federation, State Organization), and an AU rule is involved, then the complaint may be filed with the AU National Office.

ARTICLE VIII – EXPULSION / SUSPENSION

A member accused of dishonorable conduct as outlined by the AU Rules of Conduct (AU Bylaw 14), shall be notified to appear before the officers of the CVF, who will investigate the charges. Such notification to appear shall be in writing at least seven (7) days before the date of the hearing and shall specify the charges. As a result of the investigation, the officers shall present their findings to the membership of the CVF at the next regular meeting or at a special meeting. A secret ballot will be taken, and a three-quarters (3/4) majority vote of all active members would be required to expel or suspend a member. The hearing must follow procedures outlined in the AU's Constitution and Bylaws (Sec. 15 Disciplinary Rules), and must assure the charged individual is afforded "due process". An expelled or suspended member shall forfeit all privileges and claims against the CVF.

ARTICLE IX – DISSOLUTION OF ASSOCIATION

The CVF shall not be dissolved without the consent, in writing, of two-thirds (2/3) of its active members, obtained in one and confirmed in another special meeting convened for the consideration of such dissolution. Upon dissolution, the property of the CVF, after all bills and obligations have been paid shall be donated to the American Racing Pigeon Union Youth Program.

ARTICLE X – COMITTEES

Section 1. Regular and Temporary Committees: Regular and temporary committees shall be appointed by the President who shall designate a chairman for each.

Section 2. Race Committee: The Race Secretary will chair the Race Committee, consisting of at least two other (2) members, appointed by the President and recorded in the minutes. This committee shall have charge of all race details and shall conduct every race to these by-laws, and AU Competition Standards as well as any additional the CVF has. It will also resolve all questions and disputes regarding racing or competition, ensure that racing supplies are adequately maintained, and manage all race figuring activities.

Section 3. Loft Certification Committee: The race secretary will also chair the Loft Certification Committee, with a minimum of one other member, to survey member's lofts and inspect and photograph member's lofts should the requirement arise.
